

AN ACT GENERALLY REVISING THE MONTANA BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT; REVISING THE MEETING REQUIREMENTS; ALLOWING FOR REMOTE MEETINGS; REVISING DEFINITIONS FOR DIRECTOR AND OFFICER RELATING TO INDEMNIFICATION AND ADVANCEMENT; REVISING LAWS RELATING TO DOING BUSINESS IN THE STATE; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 35-14-141, 35-14-701, 35-14-702, 35-14-705, 35-14-709, 35-14-720, 35-14-850, 35-14-1021, AND 35-14-1505, MCA.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

Section 1. Section 35-14-141, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-14-141. Notices and other communications. (1) A notice under this chapter must be in writing unless oral notice is reasonable in the circumstances. Unless otherwise agreed between the sender and the recipient, words in a notice or other communication under this chapter must be in English.

(2) A notice or other communication may be given by any method of delivery, except that electronic transmissions must be in accordance with this section. If the methods of delivery are impracticable, a notice or other communication may be given by means of a broad nonexclusionary distribution to the public, which may include:

- (a) a newspaper of general circulation in the area where published;
- (b) radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication; or
- (c) other methods of distribution that the corporation has previously identified to its shareholders.

(3) A notice or other communication to a domestic corporation or to a foreign corporation registered to do business in this state may be delivered to the corporation's registered agent at its registered office or to the secretary at the corporation's principal office shown in its most recent annual report or, in the case of a foreign corporation that has not yet delivered an annual report, in its foreign registration statement.

- (4) A notice or other communications may be delivered by electronic transmission if consented to by the recipient or if authorized by subsection (10). A corporation that files documents with the office of the secretary of state under this chapter is considered to have given its irrevocable consent to delivery of notices or other communications by the office of the secretary of state to the corporation by electronic transmission.

(5) Any consent under subsection (4) may be revoked by the person who consented by written or electronic notice to the person to whom the consent was delivered. A consent is considered revoked if:

(a) the corporation is unable to deliver two consecutive electronic transmissions given by the corporation in accordance with the consent; and

(b) the inability becomes known to the secretary or an assistant secretary or to the transfer agent or other person responsible for the giving of notice or other communications. However, the inadvertent failure to treat the inability as a revocation does not invalidate any meeting or other action.

(6) Unless otherwise agreed between the sender and the recipient, an electronic transmission is received when:

(a) it enters an information processing system that the recipient has designated or uses for the purposes of receiving electronic transmissions or information of the type sent and from which the recipient is able to retrieve the electronic transmission; and

(b) it is in a form capable of being processed by that system.

(7) Receipt of an electronic acknowledgment from an information processing system described in subsection (6)(a) establishes that an electronic transmission was received but, by itself, does not establish that the content sent corresponds to the content received.

(8) An electronic transmission is received under this section even if no person is aware of its receipt.

(9) A notice or other communication, if in a comprehensible form or manner, is effective at the earliest of the following:

(a) if in a physical form, the earliest of when it is actually received or when it is left at:

(i) a shareholder's address shown on the corporation's record of shareholders maintained by the corporation under 35-14-1601(4);

(ii) a director's residence or usual place of business; or

(iii) the corporation's principal office;

(b) if mailed postage prepaid and correctly addressed to a shareholder, on deposit in the United States mail;

(c) if mailed by United States mail postage prepaid and correctly addressed to a recipient other than a shareholder, the earliest of when it is actually received or:

(i) if sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, the date shown on the return receipt signed by or on behalf of the addressee; or

(ii) 5 days after it is deposited in the United States mail;

(d) if an electronic transmission, when it is received as provided in subsection (6); and

(e) if oral, when communicated.

(10) A notice or other communication may be in the form of an electronic transmission that cannot be directly reproduced in paper form by the recipient through an automated process used in conventional commercial practice only if:

(a) the electronic transmission is otherwise retrievable in perceivable form; and

(b) the sender and the recipient have consented in writing to the use of that form of electronic transmission.

(11) If this chapter prescribes requirements for notices or other communications in particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe requirements for notices or other communications not inconsistent with this section or other provisions of this chapter, those requirements govern. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize or require delivery of notices of meetings of directors by electronic transmission.

(12) In the event that any provisions of this chapter are determined to modify, limit, or supersede the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. 7001, et seq., the provisions of this chapter control to the maximum extent permitted by section 102(a)(2) of that federal act.

(13) (a) Whenever notice would otherwise be required to be given under any provision of this chapter to a shareholder, the notice need not be given if:

(i) notices to shareholders of two consecutive annual meetings, and all notices of meetings during the period between the two consecutive annual meetings, have been sent, other than by electronic transmission, to the shareholder at the shareholder's address as shown on the records of the corporation and have been returned undeliverable or could not be delivered; or

(ii) all, but not less than two, distributions to shareholders during a 12-month period, or two consecutive distributions to shareholders during a period of more than 12 months, have been sent to the shareholder at the shareholder's address as shown on the records of the corporation and have been returned undeliverable or could not be delivered.

(b) If any shareholder to which this subsection (13) applies delivers to the corporation a written notice setting forth the shareholder's then-current address, the requirement that notice be given to the shareholder must be reinstated."

Section 2. Section 35-14-701, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-14-701. Annual meeting. (1) Unless directors are elected by written consent in lieu of an annual meeting as permitted by 35-14-704, a corporation shall hold a meeting of shareholders annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws at which directors must be elected.

(2) ~~Annual~~ Unless the board of directors determines to hold the meeting solely by means of remote communication in accordance with 35-14-709(3), annual meetings may be held:

(a) in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws; ~~if~~ or

(b) if no place is ~~so~~ stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(3) The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action."

Section 3. Section 35-14-702, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-14-702. Special meeting. (1) A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:

(a) on call of its board of directors or of the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(b) if shareholders holding at least 10% of all the votes entitled to be cast on an issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to the corporation one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held, provided that the articles of incorporation may fix a lower percentage or a higher percentage, not exceeding 25%, of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a written demand for a special meeting may be revoked by a writing to that effect received by the corporation before the receipt by the corporation of demands sufficient in number to require the holding of a special meeting.

(2) If not otherwise fixed under 35-14-703 or 35-14-707, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the first date on which a signed shareholder demand is delivered to the corporation. No written demand for a special meeting is effective unless, within 60 days of the earliest date on which the demand delivered to the corporation as required by this section was signed, written demands signed by shareholders holding at least the percentage of votes specified in or fixed in accordance with subsection (1)(b) have been delivered to the corporation.

(3) ~~Special~~ Unless the board of directors determines to hold the meeting solely by remote participation in accordance with 35-14-709(3), special meetings of shareholders may be held:

(a) in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.~~If, or~~

(b) if no place is so stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, ~~special meetings must be held at~~ the corporation's principal office.

(4) Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by 35-14-705(3) may be conducted at a special meeting of shareholders."

Section 4. Section 35-14-705, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-14-705. Notice of meeting. (1) A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place, if any, of each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than 10 or more than 60 days before the meeting date. If the board of directors has authorized participation by means of remote communication pursuant to 35-14-709 for holders of any class or series of shares, the notice to the holders of that class or series of shares must describe the means of remote communication to be used. The notice must include the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting if that date is different from the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting. Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting as of the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting.

(2) Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the notice of an annual meeting of shareholders need not include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(3) Notice of a special meeting of shareholders must include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(4) If not otherwise fixed under 35-14-703 or 35-14-707, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders' meeting is the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(5) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, if any, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or place, if any, if the new date, time, or place, if any, is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under 35-14-707, however, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to shareholders entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting as of the record date fixed for notice of the adjourned meeting."

Section 5. Section 35-14-709, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-14-709. Remote participation -- shareholder's meetings. (1) Shareholders of any class or series of shares may participate in any meeting of shareholders by means of remote communication to the extent the board of directors authorizes the participation for that class or series. Participation as a shareholder by means of remote communication is subject to guidelines and procedures the board of directors adopts and must be in conformity with subsection (2).

(2) Shareholders participating in a shareholders' meeting by means of remote communication are considered present and may vote at the meeting if the corporation has implemented reasonable measures:

- (a) to verify that each person participating remotely as a shareholder is a shareholder; and
- (b) to provide those shareholders a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the shareholders, including an opportunity to communicate and to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with the proceedings.

(3) Unless the bylaws require the meeting of shareholders to be held at a place, the board of directors may determine that any meeting of shareholders may not be held at any place and must instead be held solely by means of remote communication, but only if the corporation implements the measures specified in subsection (1)."

Section 6. Section 35-14-720, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-14-720. Shareholders' list for meeting. (1) After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting. If the board of directors fixes a different record date under 35-14-707(5) to determine the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting, a corporation also shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to vote at the meeting. A list must be arranged by voting group and, within each voting group, by class or series of shares and must show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder. Nothing in this subsection requires the corporation to include on the list the electronic mail address or other electronic contact information of a shareholder.

(2) (a) The shareholders' list for notice must be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning 2 business days after notice is given of the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting;

(i) at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held; or

(ii) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to the list is provided with the notice of the meeting. In the event that the corporation determines to make the list available on an electronic network, the corporation may take reasonable steps to ensure that the information is available only to shareholders of the corporation.

(b) A shareholders' list for voting must be similarly available for inspection promptly after the record date for voting. A shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of 35-14-1602(3), to copy the list, during regular business hours and at the shareholder's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(3) ~~The~~ If the meeting is to be held at a place, the corporation shall make the list of shareholders entitled to vote available at the meeting, and any shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment. If the meeting is to be held solely by means of remote communication, then the list must also be open to inspection during the meeting on a reasonably accessible electronic network, and the information required to access the list must be provided with the notice of the meeting.

(4) If the corporation refuses to allow a shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney to inspect a shareholders' list before or at the meeting or to copy a list as permitted by subsection (2), the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, the first judicial district, on application of the shareholder, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense and may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete.

(5) Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting."
